IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Kimberly T. Boike

Practice: Boike works as an associate at Chuhak & Tecson P.C. and advises hospitals and physicians on mergers and acquisitions, employment agreements, affiliation agreements, corporate structuring and medical staff issues.

Project: The Charitable Council at Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center works to support the President's Fund for Special Needs, which extends health-care access; educates the next generation of doctors, nurses and allied health professionals; and improves patient care. In just three years, the fund invested more than $1 million in donor support to provide the best possible care for the patients served by Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center.

Why get involved: Serving on the Charitable Council helps raise awareness and funds for Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center's mission to serve the health-care needs of people in communities on the city's North Side. The organization's goal is to truly make a difference in the lives of patients served by Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center.

What: Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center received approval to build a new outpatient services center to meet the needs of the community, which will expand several of the medical center's core outpatient services. This includes cancer care, digestive health services and outpatient surgery.

When: The groundbreaking for the new Center for Advanced Care is Tuesday and the president's fund annual kick-off event is April 10.

Who it benefits: Residents of communities on the city's North Side.
